

DSM-5: An Overview

February 21, 2014

Robert Batterson, MD

Program Schedule:

7:30 am	Registration and coffee
8:00	Welcome
8:10	Organization of the manual and history of DSM Definition of a mental disorder Significant changes from DSM IV (e.g. elimination of Axes, recording procedures)
8:45	Neurodevelopmental Disorders Anxiety Disorders and OCD related disorders Affective Disorders Gender dysphoria
9:35	Questions
9:45	Break
10:00	Schizophrenia Neurocognitive disorders Personality Disorders (includes a discussion of dimensional assessment) Substance related disorders New rating scales, WHODAS and Cross-Cutting measures
10:50	Questions
11:00	Trauma and stressor related disorders Sexual Dysfunction Paraphilic disorders Conditions for further study
11:15	Elimination Disorders Disruptive, impulse control and conduct disorders
11:45	Questions
Noon	Adjourn

Robert Batterson, MD earned his medical degree from the University of Missouri Kansas City in 1987. Since 1997 he has been a Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist for Children's Mercy Hospital in Kansas City and in 2006 was named an Associate Professor of Pediatrics for UMKC School of Medicine. His current title with UMKC is Lead Psychiatrist. He has served in the U.S. Military, received many awards and has been the Principal Investigator of two studies on autism.