Transitional Resource Fair

Hogan Street Regional Youth Center

1839 Hogan Street
St. Louis, MO 63106

You are invited to represent your program in the 1st Annual Transitional Resource Fair hosted by Hogan Street Regional Youth Center.

Exhibitors will include service representatives from banks, health departments, career and technical education, career centers, continuing education programs, housing assistance, government agencies, and any other agency that assists youth in the “real world”!

More details to follow!

August 4th at 9 AM

* Check in between 8 – 8:30 AM

*Hogan Street Regional Youth Center is a Division of Youth Services residential facility housing youth who are looking to transition back into the community. Youth from two other residential facilities will also be in attendance at the Transition Resource Fair. DYS appreciates the partnerships of community resources as we ensure the future success of our residents. This is a secure facility, and we do ask that you do not take any photographs on the day of the event.
